8- The improvements take place in accordance with the sketch submitted as part of the permit application, INCLUDING:

- Front Yard setback shall be behind the front line of the Principal Building (Dwelling);
- Side Yard setback shall be a minimum of 1.2 metres or greater distance as required under the Alberta Safety Codes Act;
- Rear Yard setback shall be a minimum of 6.0 metres; and
- Maximum Height shall be 4.5 metres (15.0 ft.).

9- All improvements shall be completed within twelve (12) months of the effective date of the permit.

10- The applicant is responsible for designing and constructing a building foundation drainage system adequate for the existing soil conditions.

11- The applicant is responsible for determining if there are any special considerations required for building foundation construction.

12- The site and improvements thereon shall be maintained in a clean and tidy condition during construction, free from rubbish and debris. Receptacles for the purpose of disposing of rubbish and debris shall be provided to prevent scatter of debris and rubbish.

13- No person shall keep or permit to be kept in any part of a yard any excavation, storage or piling of materials required during the construction stage unless all necessary safety measures are undertaken. The owner of such materials or excavation must assume full responsibility to ensure the situation does not prevail any longer than reasonably necessary to complete a particular stage of construction.

NOTE:

1. The issuance of a Development Permit in accordance with the notice of decision is subject to the condition that it does not become effective until twenty-nine (29) days after the date of the order, decisions or development permit is issued.

2. The Land Use Bylaw provides that any person claiming to be affected by a decision of the Development Officer may appeal to the Development Appeal Board by serving written notice of appeal to the Clerk of the Development Appeal Board within twenty-one (21) days after notice of the decision is given.

3. A permit issued in accordance with the notice of the decision is valid for a period of twelve (12) months from the date of issue. If at the expiry of this period, the development has not been commenced or carried out with reasonable diligence, this permit shall be null and void.

IMPORTANT NOTES

1. Any development proceeded with prior to the expiry of the appeal period is done solely at the risk of the Applicant even though an application for Development has been approved and a Development Permit has been issued. The period allowed for an appeal to be filed is twenty-one (21) days after a development permit is issued.

2. Any person claiming to be affected by a decision regarding an application for a development permit may appeal by serving written notice to the Clerk of the Development Appeal Board within twenty-one (21) days after a development permit or notice of decision was issued.

3. This Development Permit is valid for a period of 12 months from the date it was issued, or the date of an approval order being granted by the Development Appeal Board. If at the expiry of this period, the development has not been commenced or carried out with reasonable diligence, the permit becomes invalid unless an extension has been granted by the Development Officer.

4. The applicant is reminded that compliance with this Permit requires compliance with all conditions affixed thereto.
